A well-known horse dealer who was celebrated for his splendid get-up at a correct rendering of the Queen's English had just been examined in a certain case. On being taken in hand for examination, the following ensued:—On being asked, Counsel, "Handly—You are Mr. Stoddard, are you?" he replied, "believe?" Witness, with expression, "Yes, Counsel." all necessity for that sort of thing. The Mayor has been following the example of his brother officer in the Plaza, and has put his heel on all public dancing till the war is over. People in this city are anxious to know if Lord Mayor Sebe will do the same; and also to decide whether they can go to the dance. This would be a much more sensible than naming Committees to adorn streets, and such nonsense.
